

VALE BUTTON WORKS
EXHIBITION & GATHERING

FOR THOSE WHO MADE THEM.
FOR THOSE WHO KEEP THEM.

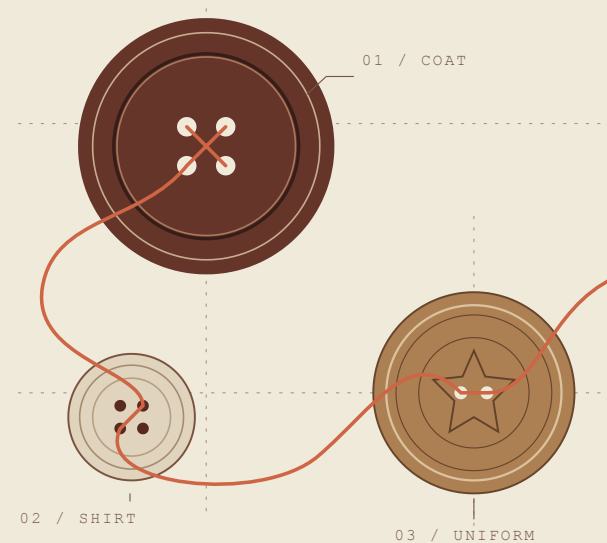

A Thousand Small Closures

Objects and stories from the Vale Button Works

AN INVITATION TO RETURN

Saturday 17 October, 2–5 pm
Old Packing Hall, 8 Canal Lane

Bring a button, a photograph, or a story. Admission free.

FORTY-EIGHT YEARS OF MAKING

1948–1996

A coat fastened. A shirt finished. A uniform ready. Behind each button were hands that learned the weight, checked the edge, and counted the next batch. This exhibition brings the objects back alongside the people who made them, giving room to the skill, attention, and everyday lives held in small things.

⋮ COAT · SHIRT · UNIFORM

A SMALL THING TO KEEP.
A SHARED HISTORY TO CARRY.